BOND SALE

Handsome Premium Realized on the Sewer Bonds

The sale of $12,000 worth of city bonds took place in the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon in the presence of the City Council, as advertised.

After spirited bidding by Messrs. J. Foster Barbour, Mr. John Duley and Mr. Roger Devine of this city and Mr. Victor Chambers of Cincinnati, they were awarded to the Bank of Mayaville at $12,500.

This is the largest premium ever received by the city for her bonds, and that, too, at a lower rate of interest.

Heretofore she has been compelled to pay interest at the rate of 5 and 6%; the bonds sold yesterday bear only 4%.

This certainly speaks well for Mayaville as well as those in authority who have so wisely and safely conducted her affairs.

The indebtedness today, counting the bonds sold yesterday, is $70,000.

The first of February that amount will be reduced by the liquidation of $6,000, which will leave an outstanding debt of $64,000.

It is said by those who are in position to know that the entire amount of bonds against the city are held by our own citizens.

The receipts for 1904 amounted to $71,906.73 and the expenditures to $66,150.09, leaving a balance on the right side of the ledger of $5,756.64.

There are few cities the size of Mayaville better fixed financially; her taxable property will reach in the neighborhood of $3,000,000.

She has never contracted a debt that has not been paid dollar for dollar—and she has paid millions of them, too.

Mayaville is a good city with good people in it.

If you are looking for a place to locate come right here. You will find no better place on earth.

Is It Good Printing?

Try The Ledger Printer. Only first-class work by an artistic Job Specialist. How are you off for Bill Heads for your January account? Now is the time to have your printing done, ready for the New Year. Give The Ledger Printer a trial and you will be pleased.

Harry Daly is going to lay off January 30th.

John Helton, a bachelor and soldier of the Confederacy, died at his home on White Oak, Greenup county, aged 91. He has lived alone in the same one-room house ever since discharged from the Army. He was born in Scotland.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to know that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

At the Postoffice corner the thermometer registered zero and at the C. and O. Depot it was 6° below. It was decidedly the coldest morning of the winter.

HELD IN $500

Shooters of Robb Will Be Tried Monday at Vanceburg

Andy Thomas and Charles Carpenter, who gave themselves up, were taken to Vanceburg yesterday morning, and appeared before County Judge Lee, who upon their own statement committed them to jail in default of a $500 bond for appearance next Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Judge Whitaker accompanied the two men as Counsel. Thomas acknowledges having fired the fatal shot that killed Robb, but says it was done in self-defense, claiming that they were fired upon first by Robb and his pal.

The charge against them is manslaughter.

CAT CAME BACK

A Ledger Advertisement Found the Maltese Kitten

One of Second street's most prominent business men has a bright, pretty little daughter who is the possessor of a maltese kitten, which she prizes and loves above all her possessions.

The other day kitty wandered away from her home and by so doing her little mistress suffered great grief and mental anguish thereby.

In bemoaning her loss to a neighbor he suggested the efficacy of a lost notice in the columns of THE LEDGER, and advised that she have father prepare one and have it published. The father granted the daughter's request.

The day after the advertisement appeared in the paper a youth,—if whose genius grows with his years may some day be a banker—had procured a stray feline, and stepping into the counting room of the gentlemen's business place said in a matter of fact way—

"Mister, here's your cat," expecting to find a reward by his deception, but was somewhat crestfallen, after the man of means had discovered the fraud, replied,

"No, son, that is not the one."

Stepping on the outside the lad dropped the cat nearby.

Soon another boy saw the cat and thinking it was the one advertised picked it up and rushed in with—

"Mister, I've found your cat. Here she is."

It was another disappointment and the boy departed thinking no doubt that the world and his luck were dead against him. He, too, dropped it not far from where he had found it.

Not long afterward a business man entered with a smile on his face and the same old cat under his arm. Stepping up as though he were about to cash a check, he said with a bow and another smile—

"I've brought your cat back. I found it near my store."

"Well," said the gentleman, "this makes the third time in thirty minutes I have disowned that cat. I am much obliged for your kindness, but it is not the cat I want."

Finally the right cat was brought in by a lady residing in the West End, stating she had read the lost notice in THE LEDGER; that she bought it from a boy, and knew it was the one advertised because it was pretty and smart. The lost was at last found and received with open arms and profuse thanks.

The family circle, and especially the little daughter, made much over the kitten's return.

ee-lighted to be with you once more,
ope we'll keep right along together for years to come.

WHATEVER the wranglers now in session at Frankfort may do, I hope they will not locate the Capital in Maysville. She already has her full complement of obstructionists, without the biennial visits of the Legislature.

SOME of Kentucky's politicians object to paying an Architect $40,000 for planning and building a million-dollar Capitol, which will require two or three years of his time. But they think it all right to pay a fellow-politician $80,000 to collect an undisputed war claim from the Government, though it took only a few weeks time to do it.

CERTAINLY!

If Kentucky is to have another Democratic United States Senator,—and it looks that way—I am for Tom PAYNTER from right now till the last day at midnight.

TOM is a good fellow, and withal a "lucky dog." He and Ed. DAVEN are the "great unbeaten;" besides, he is a resident of the Ninth District, and it never has had a United States Senator.

Just say the word, Judge, and I'll brush the dust off that cyclone picture and make it sweep you right into the Senate.

GOVERNOR BECKHAM and Senator BLACKBURN have recently been using a good deal of newspaper space in telling the truth about each other; but it would require a great deal more to tell the whole story.

WHILE looking in on the recent session of the Legislature, GREEN KELLER was sorely distressed when he saw some little 4×8 statesmen totting an 8×12 load of responsibility. Bro. KELLER adds that "The laws of Kentucky can never be declared to be just until the law preventing cruelty to animals is extended to include the human race, and made especially applicable to the overloading of the small politician."

THE 26,000 mill operatives of Fall River, Mass., who went on a strike a year ago against a reduction of 12%, have returned to work on that basis. The settlement was effected by the new Democratic Governor of that state, Hon. W. L. DOUGLAS, himself one of the largest employers of Union labor in the United States. The only consolation the strikers have is in the knowledge that they lost $500,000 in wages during the self-imposed idleness. Strikes come high; but it seems that fool workmen must have them.

AFTER a strike covering several months, the strikers have arranged to buy the plant of a Newport foundry. The owners were only too glad to sell. It is a happy solution of the problem. There's nothing equal to ownership and financial responsibility and management to convince some workmen of the injustice of their demands. Maybe, after they put their product on the market in competition with the output of other manufacturers, these Newport fellows will find out just how much they can afford to pay for labor, and whether they will permit the Walking Delegate to fix prices for them.

Gain Strength for Work

In office and factory, shop, store or kitchen girls are at work all over this land, and, alas! far beyond their strength.

Young women who work are especially liable to female ills. Too often the girl is the bread winner of the family and she must toil unmercifully, no matter if her back does ache, her limbs and abdomen throb, with dull pain and dragging sensations, and dizzy spells make her utterly unfit for work. These are the sure signs of female irregularities which kill beauty and youth.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

builds health and strength for all women who work and are weary. It creates the vitality that makes work easy. From the thousands of grateful letters written by working girls to Mrs. Pinkham we quote the following:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to tell you the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier have done for me. Before I took them I was very nervous, had dull headaches, pains in back, and monthly periods were irregular. I had been to several doctors and they did me no good.

Your medicine has made me well and strong, I can do most any kind of work without complaint, and my periods are all right.

I am in better health than I ever was, and I know it is all due to your remedies. I recommend your advice and medicine to all who suffer.

The R. F. D. mail service is growing in favor. The stopping of the handsome wagon and delivering mail at the door is quite an event at the homes of our rural neighbors. The small children watch for it and are disappointed when a number of our citizens agree with your valued correspondent from Cottageville in the matter of needing officials who will look after the welfare of the country instead of their own pocketbooks. The roads are "steadily going down," as he says, a fact that is a shame to the officials of both counties considering the amount of taxes the traveling public pay to keep them in good condition. The "deplorable condition" of schools is just as he says with regard to dissatisfaction with the "change of school books." An issue of The Maysville Bulletin December 3d, 1903, contains the following under the heading "The School Book Question": "Behind all questions of party policy, lined up in solid array, stand the children and parents of the state demanding that the legalized robbery to which they have been forced to submit, the extortions of which they have been the victims, shall be ended." Further in the same article says among other things: "Truth is, it would be entirely easy to enact a school book bill were it not for the lobby of the school book trust. These gentry convene at Frankfort before the Legislature assembles and are there until it is gone." Is this what is the matter with our country schools? Is it really the fault of the lobbyist and not the fault of our Legislators that the poor children of the state are being defrauded and robbed?"

THE HOOSIER GIRL.

A production of unusual excellence and magnitude to be given at the Washington Opera house this evening is the rural comedy "The Hoosier Girl," with Miss Kate Watson in the title role, dealing largely with the mannerisms, habits, actions and customs of the natives of the good old Hoosier State, Indiana, but it presents an abundance of effects that are daring and thrilling in their magnitude and admirable in their executions. Beautiful scenery that correctly depicts the surroundings of "The Hoosier Girl" add heaps towards making this comedy the people's favorite. Seats on sale at Ray's.

The Medicine That Cures.

RENO, OKLA., May 11, 1903.

Wine of Cardui absolutely does cure sick women. I consider it the most valuable medicine ever invented, cheaper than sick women can use, as it takes as a rule only a few bottles to effect a complete and lasting cure. I especially recommend it for uterine or ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, painful profuse or scanty menstruation and it is a most valuable adjunct to use during the puerative period, insuring easy childbirth and speedy recovery.

It should have a place in every home as it is a true friend to wife, mother and maiden and I most heartily recommend it.

Dr. E. Buchanan
WRITER AND LECTURER.

Mr. Buchanan's high intelligence and long and successful experience render her advice of great value. Wine of Cardui regulates menstruation, cures bearing-down pains and relieves suffering women of the pain and misery to which their sex is heir. You have the word of Dr. Buchanan and thousands of other eminent women that Wine of Cardui will completely cure you.
